

Dresden International School (DIS) is a comprehensive school offering an all-day program. We offer an outstanding and continuous education from Preschool to Grade 12. The language of instruction and colloquial language is English. DIS aims to provide children and teens from throughout the world with an international education based on the International Baccalaureate (IB) program and philosophy. DIS sees it as its special task to promote understanding between different cultures and the individual talents of young people.

Dresden International School is looking for a part-time (up to 80% working hours) German Language and Literature teacher starting at the earliest possible date. The contract will be limited for the school year of 2023-24.

GERMAN LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE TEACHER

The successful candidate will be working with an experienced team of Language and Literature teachers alongside student support services and a strong middle leadership team.

German is an important and high-profile subject for German University recognition and expectations from the community are high.

This is a job for an experienced educator with a commitment to supporting all students on their educational journey. The successful candidate will be teaching students in the Middle Years Program (Grades 6 - 10). IB experience is preferred but not necessary as training will be provided.

This is an excellent opportunity to experience teaching German in an international context.

Teachers at Dresden International School are primarily responsible for student learning and are committed to supporting the mission, vision, and values of the school. Professional standards are based on the following principles of practice, so that a DIS teacher:

1. Respects and promotes the vision, mission, and core values of the school
2. Adheres to the guidance from the DIS Child Protection Handbook
3. Demonstrates and practices the philosophy, values, and pedagogy of the IB Program, to:
 - Place appropriate emphasis on conceptual and inquiry-based learning
 - Strive to develop international-mindedness and the IB learner profile attributes
 - Understand the relevance of the UN Sustainable Development Goals and Rights of the Child in the program

- Commit to the trans- and interdisciplinary nature of the IB Program
- Participate in responsible action within and beyond the school community
- Make every effort to ensure the best interests of students within the DIS community

4. Engages in open communication with all stakeholders based on understanding and respect.
